Brown Common Pleas.

Samuel Bivins vs. In Chancery.

William Workman and John Harness are hereby notified, that on the 31st day of May 1843, Samuel Bivins filed in the court of common Pleas of the county of Brown and State of Ohio, a bill in chancery against the said William Workman and John Harness. The bill states; that on the 14th of November 1836, defendant William Workman executed his title bond binding himself to make to defendant John Harness a warranty deed for sixty acres of land in Green township in said county, part of Henry Lee's entry No. 11059, of 145 acres, bounded and described as follows to wit: Beginning at three hickories, running thence ninety three and three fourths poles one way and one hundred and two poles the other way;—for which said Harness was to pay said Workman $210 in 18 months from that date;—that Workman was in possession thereof and held the same by legal title;—that at the date of said title bond he put Harness in possession thereof and took his notes for the purchase money;—that on the 4th of September 1837 said Harness sold said land to Complainant for a valuable consideration, full paid; and delivered to him said title bond and delivered to him possession of said bond and land;—that Workman gave up to Harness the notes for the purchase money and took complainant's notes in lieu thereof, all of which have been fully paid, except one note of $106 due about the 1st of March 1842;—that Complainant has always been ready to pay the same since it became due, and now
